

Ladybugs Class September 2017 Newsletter

Dear GP Ladybugs Class Parents,

Welcome to the second month of school! We are excited to see friendships developing and interests expanding. Here is our second monthly letter! This will be one of our forms of communication. Each month you will receive a letter from us with updates and highlights from our classroom experiences. These letters will be sent out monthly in the newsletter. In addition, we write weekly journals which can be found on the GPCP website (GPCP.org) on the Ladybugs class page at any time, by clicking the "Classes tab".

In the second month of school we have watched the children develop strong friendships with their peers and become more and more comfortable in their environment. The children like working together to build and play and explore the materials around them. Through this collaborative play the children have begun to focus more on ideas and we have noticed that the children relate much of their ideas to animals.

"I'm making a porcupine"
- Harper

"You make a jungle like that?" - Hunter
"I'm going to make a big Jungle" - Gnarly-Jo
"Yeah a small big one" - Hunter

Nature feels like...
"A bumble bee, ants"
- Julia

Next week we will welcome two new members to our class: my new co-educator, Rachel Czech, and Genevieve Wilson, a new child who is taking Richards' spot and will be attending school five days/week. Please join me in welcoming them both to our Ladybugs class.

I want to extend my appreciation to all of you, the parents, and to Ms. Patrice for her tremendous support over the past few weeks. Thank you!
