

Welcome to GPCP Summer Camp 2018!

Kitten Session I: Grant Park Zoo and the Circus Animals

Miss Ashley welcome's you to Session I: Grant Park Zoo and the Circus Animals. I am so excited to explore our neighborhood's zoo and the magical story of the circus that brokedown in our park and just never left. We will be exploring the concepts of empathy, home, and places for community to gather using the symbolism and joy of the circus.

Miss. Ashley graduated in 2015 From Texas A&M University. She has worked in Early Childhood Education for 3 years, but has not been in a classroom for the past 5. She began working at GPCP in February and is very excited to start working with the first class of Summer Kittens!

Declaration of Intent: The Tale of Two Towns

This summer we will investigate and uncover the tales of our two towns and the path that connects them. Through the process of encountering and interpreting old photos, current sights and folklore we will weave together theories, hypotheses, and imagination that will inspire the children's research and experimentation in pursuit of possibilities.

The next three weeks we will explore the Town of Grant Park. In 1889, a traveling circus broke down in Grant Park. The town decided to rescue the animals and give them a home in Grant Park. The original residents of the zoo included a black bear, a jaguar, a hyena, a gazelle, a Mexican hog, lionesses, monkeys and camels.
